

At a Glance

Boys & Girls Clubs provide safe places where young people can learn and grow. We believe every kid and teen deserves access to experiences and opportunities that change their lives for the better – regardless of their socio-economic status, color of their skin or other factors that contribute to inequities. Through caring mentors, innovative programming and an unwavering commitment to safety, Clubs across the nation do whatever it takes to support youth on their path to a great future.

MISSION

To enable all young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens.

FUTURE WORKFORCE LEADERS

Young people are tomorrow’s leaders. Club youth are empowered to explore their interests and passions, develop employable skills and apply their knowledge to real-world work experiences. 78% of Club alumni are satisfied with their career, compared to 65% of adults from the general population.

TOTAL HEALTH & WELLNESS FOCUS

At Boys & Girls Clubs, kids and teens have access to programs and resources that support all aspects of their health – physical, mental, emotional and social. 91% of Club members recognize what emotions they are feeling, and 90% understand how their feelings influence their actions.

SAFE, INCLUSIVE PLACES

Clubs provide secure, welcoming environments where youth can engage with their peers and caring mentors and focus on what’s most important – being a kid. 91% of Club members report they feel safe being themselves at the Club.

In a typical year, Boys & Girls Clubs serve 3.6 million young people, 1.7 million through membership and 1.9 million through community outreach – in nearly 5,000 Club facilities, including:
