

Stay safe by staying alert

Thinking about people who want to hurt you is scary. You won't be able to tell if someone wants to hurt you based on their gender, skin color, religion or age. But you CAN watch out for danger. Talk to a trusted adult if this sounds like someone you know.

Eyes that look at you in a way that makes you uncomfortable

Mouth that shares too much information with you or asks questions that make you nervous

Arms that insist on hugs, even when you don't want to hug

Hands that offer you gifts if you agree to keep a secret

Hands that touch you too much

Feet that walk to your school or house unannounced or without permission
